CODE OF CONDUCT

- As motorcyclists, we are ambassadors at all times.
- We behave in a friendly and pleasant manner.
- We treat everyone with respect, courtesy and appreciation.
- We do not discuss or comment on controversial topics (e.g. politics, religion, beliefs) in public.
- We are considerate of country-specific or regional characteristics in terms of tradition, religion or politics.
- We avoid any verbal or non-verbal discrimination.
- We avoid arguments and disputes.
- We do not leave any rubbish behind.
- We stay on the road (no unnecessary water crossings, no 'scars' in the terrain)
- Private property is respected
- We ride slowly, quietly and considerately through villages and settlements and do not intentionally frighten people or animals.
